I am saddened to learn of Andy's death. We met in the 1994 when I lived in Tampa and owned a business that he utilized from time to time. We became fast friends. I loved his off-color jokes and quick wit. When I moved from Tampa to Vermont, we kept in touch via email, and the occasional phone call. I, unfortunately, misplaced his number, and when he hadn't emailed me in a while, and my email was returned to me as undeliverable, I knew the inevitable had happened. I finally found the strength today to search for Andy and even though this is not the way I would have preferred to find him, I take solace that he is kicking it somewhere, cracking jokes, and making people smile. Godspeed, Andy ... You will be remembered and loved always. Love, Linda, Rich & Sam.
