Jennie Brockway Canalejo

FEB 13, 1918 - APR 18, 2014

Jennie Brockway Canalejo, passed away at age 96 on April 18, 2014 in Zephyrhills. She was formerly from Tampa. She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Canalejo, daughter, Annette Vallejo, grandson, Gilbert Sabella, sisters, Pat Gonzalez, Bessie Blain, Mary Padron and son-in-law Gerry Piersall. She is survived by her daughter, Rachel Piersall; sister, Manuela Di Rosa; grandsons, Frank Sabella (Laura), John (Dee), Daniel (Allison) and Dean Vallejo. Eight great-grandchildren and numerous nephews, nieces and extended family and friends. She retired after her 32 years of employment with Wolf Brothers. Her greatest joy was the time she spent with her family. The love and devotion she gave to her family and friends will be missed. The family wishes to extend appreciation to Heartland Skilled Nursing Facility for the exceptional love and care they extended to her. In lieu of flowers donations may be made HPH Hospice, 37445 Clinton Ave., Dade City, Fl. 33525 or a charity of your choice in her memory. Visitation will be held Wednesday, from 6pm - 8pm at Boza & Roel Funeral Home, 4730 N. Armenia Ave., Tampa.

My thoughts and prayers go out to the Family. I never had the pleasure of meeting Grandma Jennie personally, but I always enjoyed hearing her grandson Dean's antidotal stories.
