My deepest sympathy goes out to the Sanchez Family. I had the pleasure of spending time with Mr. Sanchez in Pittsburgh on two separate occasions. His love for life was very apparent and was also portrayed in the woodworking that he did. I was privileged to be given a wooden earring caddy which he made, which I use daily. And I will always think of him at Christmas when I get my wooden manger scene out and my wooden Raindeer cardholder that he made. He was a wonderful person and will be missed dearly.
