Very beautiful Lady. Absolutely hilarious. Lew's stories of getting her through the family poker outings kept me a 22 handicapped golfer. Who could concentrate after that?

Although Patty was my fathers cousin- in law, I grew up calling her Aunti Patti. Though we didn't see her often, living 1100 miles away, when we came down to visit, Patty was always glad too see us, and she was full of life and most importantly - fun. She always had a quick smile to give, and as a child that was so wonderful. The memories that you have given me will last in my mind until the day that I leave this earth. Thank you for that. With deepest love to the family, from me and my family. Dean, Alison, Aidan and Sarah Midulla

To my dearest friend and her family...we have been friends for a lifetime. I know that you are finally at peace and glory in Heaven with Our Lord. As we get older, times have kept us apart from all that we use to do family to family; will never forget you & Louis; the children; singing at one of the girls wedding with my grandson being the ring bearer; St. Augustine, Six Flags over Goergia, and all the wonderful things we did together; above all but not least, "all our walks" on the beach with the children...and the entire crazy gang of us women...cooking and just loving being together. Our husbands to this day have continued Dominoes and card games. I know you are truely happy now and will always keep you, Louis, Lisa and Dana and the family in my prayers and in my heart forever. May 5th will always be a special date in my life...Until we meet again. Love you Patty, kiss my grandson, Eric for me.Love, Peace, Prayer. Mary Ann Queirolo

Patty's beauty always glowed from inside out everytime I saw her and even though I didn't know her as well as I wish I could have I do know the family she so adored who also loved & adored her. She was a wonderful family orientated woman who I pray is now free of pain. I believe she is now enjoying the memory of all the people and things she loved. May God bless her & give the family & loved ones who have been left behind peace in their hearts with the memories of all that was her. Love, Hugs & Prayers.
