PARDO, Peter Vincent Jr, 68, died peacefully on July 10, 2010 after a brief illness. He was a lifelong resident of Tampa. His love of family, friends, golf and sports brought him great pleasure. He is survived by his loving wife, Erma; his sons Peter and Michael; his daughter-in-law Lauren; his three sisters, Francis Herranz, Mary Ballaban and Cecilia Hayes; and his four loving granddaughters, Sophia, Ava, Ella and Mya. Honorary pallbearers are his numerous breakfast friends in the West Tampa Coffee Club; dominos friends at Edwards Pipe & Tobacco; and his cherished colleagues that have spanned his many years of service at McKesson Corporation. He will be greatly missed by many. The Pardo family would like to extend their gratitude to the doctors and nurses at St. Joseph's Hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Jose Cura and the Dr. Rozas Medical Group. Visitation will take place between 6-8pm, Tuesday, July 13, 2010 at Boza & Roel Funeral Home, 4730 North Armenia Avenue. Pete Pardo, Louis Perez & Gene Fry are three of the reasons I moved to Tampa. During our work relationship at Johnson Drug Company I grew to consider Pete as one of my dearest friends. Over the years I have thought of him many times and regret not having stayed closer to both he and Erma. God bless Pete, Erma & his family. There are a lot great things about Pete that will live forever in my memory, but most of all the smile he always had for his family and friends. I'm glad I had an opportunity to at one time be a part of his circle of friends.

Pete was not only a big part of the only fishing trip I ever went on while a buyer for Kash n'Karry but he was a great help to me during my time in that position and throughout my many years with the chain. When he walked into Friends Health Mart Pharmacy and realized that Katrina and I owned it...the Pardo Smile just lit up his face. Petes smile, his kindness and his sense of humor will be forever etched in my mind and my heart. He will not be forgotten.

To Erma, to the Family, and to the Friends of Mr. Peter Pardo, You can feel that Death can leave a heartache that nothing can heal, just know that Love can leave a memory that no one can steal. Psalms 147:3-"God is healing the broken-hearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." May you Erma and the family and many friends draw on the wonderful memories he must have made over the years. Brian, Kerry, and AJ Michelotti
