Wow. Dont really know where to start. So schocked at this moment. I will remember from way back in the days of going to your house when we were kids with my parents and yours on a Sunday with aunt Rosa and the spread of food we had that your mom used to cook for all of us. Staying in touch with the Maggio family and now getting to know the next generation I can say you raised two great kids Amy and Gino and I am sure they will both follow in your footsteps as being a great dad. I am honored to have had you as my cousin and great menories. Now time for you to go with the angels and say hello to my dad for me. R.I.P cuz.Luv always...

Mike Maggio was a good man. Many times he would stay at our home while working in Jacksonville, my wife Erin and I enjoyed great dinner conversations with Mike and of course, after dinner Mike and I enjoyed cigars together. There was no denying the Maggio genes running through his blood. My next cigar will be with a shot of Irish Whiskey in memory of Mike's drink of choice, and as he would say "Not that heathen brewed Whiskey Jameson!" My condolences to the family. Rest in peace Mike, all your troubles are now over. God bless. CJ & Erin Eiras
