Myrtle was an inspiration to us....her faith, her caring heart.Despite the challenges she went through, she was always more concerned for others around her than herself. We cherished her friendship. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her entire family.

Her Dad was standing on the shores of Heaven waiting for her when she made her entrance! What a Christmas gift for him! I have never heard of anyone that could go straight back to work after a chemo treatment, but Myrtle did! Her attitude & bravery throughout her problems & pain was a definite testimony of her faith in God! She left a Christian example that we all should follow. She was Loved & will be missed by her step siblings and by me! God bless her children, grandchildren, siblings and her Mom. One day, we will see her again!!
