Words cannot even begin to express our sorrow. May you take comfort in knowing an angel is watching over you and may the love of those around you help you through the days ahead. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.

Daniel, I am sorry to hear about Pauline. I know that she has been ill for awhile and can now rest. While your Dad and mine are probably up there drinking coffee, I also know they will be up to some sort of mischief, so perhaps your Mom can keep them from getting into too much trouble. Part of our legacy is the memories, lessons and values that our parents leave us.

Daniel, It is with a heavy heart to learn of your loss. Your Mother was an incredible woman that was amazingly wealthy. Wealthy is the sense of having a enormous amount of friends and family that genuinely cherished and loved her. During her time with us, she provided a cheerful outlook on life that all of us should pursue and replicate. Her pain is vanished and at this moment she can rejoice in delight for God has her to protect and love forever. I'm sure she's already scolding your Father and mine for the mischievous they're pulling together (lol). My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family throughout this time. Please know that God is with you and He will reassure you during this time. I will be unable to attend the services but please know my affection and support are with you today and always... God Bless. The Alderman's Kirk - Seth - Noah - Zackary

Dan, I'm so sorry I didn't get to see Polly before she left to be with God! She was such a special lady. She was like a second mother to me as well as a wonderful token Nana to the boys. We will always have loving memories of her and the years we got to share with her. We love you and our thoughts and prayers are with you. Be strong and know she is happy and healthy now, and celebrating with your dad as well as Momma and Pops.
