Father Jazwiecki was more than just a teacher at Chanel High School in Bedford, Ohio when I attended in the 60's. He was a true professional and friend to those of us taking business courses from him. I will never forget him. Greg Caspio Chanel High School, Class of 1967

Fr. John held a special place in our family. He married several of us siblings and always kept in contact with his special Christmas blessing. We were fortunate to visit with him in Florida and on his last visit to Ohio in July. He was so caring, thoughtful, sincere. Truly a man of God. He is going to be missed. Our sympathies to the families of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and esp Father Richard and his brother Joe. He will always hold a special place in our hearts. Rest in peace Fr. John until we meet again....
