I would like to extend my deepest condolences to your family on the loss of Isabel, losing a loved one in death brings much sorrow to the family many think will I ever see my loved one again? thankfully the Bible provides the answer for us found at John 5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 there we learn of the hope we have of seeing our loved ones we've lost in death again and Psalms 37:11,29 assures us we will see them again on a paradise earth under peaceful conditions. I hope these Bible promises bring comfort to your family.
