This is such a small world, to know that I lived right around the corner from you for so many years, and never knew you until I met the Traina's. What an honor to have become so close to you and your family, just like another Mom, Dad and Brother(s) to me. This world lost such a kind and loving man, who just gave to anyone from the bottom of his heart. MaryAnn and Steve my heart broke into pieces when I got the phone call and I can not even begin to imagine the depth of your sorrow. I wish I had the words to comfort you but I know there are none that will take away your pain. I will continue to wrap my arms around you and remain holding you both in my heart. I know that one day we will all be with Michael again. All My Love!

Mary Ann, I can't imagine the heartache that you and Steven are going through right now. It just doesn't seem fair. Mike was like an older brother to me. We were together almost everyday; whether it was watching tv, playing video games, or on the boat! It saddens me deeply to know that he's gone. The mark that he left on us all can never be replaced. May God give you strength to get through this terrible heartache. RIP Mikey I love and miss you buddy!

I was so saddened to hear the news of your passing. You assume in life that people will always be around. Tomorrow is not promised. Mike I have so many awesome memories of you. You may have been one of the funniest people I ever met. Such a great friend too... very protective. One minute picking on JJ and next minute sticking up for him if someone else was picking on him (only you could do that).. Following Ashley home so we knew she got home safe... Being with Kevin while he spent the night in the hospital... Telling me to buckle up, probably because you knew you were going to drive a little faster than you should. We were kids and we made lots of mistakes, LOTS, but we did it together. And somehow these were the good times I remember that make us who we are today. You were so good to the Mercado's when they needed you most. Your family would have been so proud to see you and the boys doing yard work, picking up groceries and holding things down for JJ's family. I'm glad we got to spend that week together. I'll never forget you. Thank you for all the memories.
