My condolences to your family. I had spoke to Dickie before he passed, he called me to wish me my condolences for my brother Carlos Menendez who passed May 23rd which I was very grateful. Dickie was in my wedding in 1962 when I married Peter Lala. I still have the wedding album with him and my brother in it. I know how hard it is when you lose someone you love, my brother was only 66 yrs old and I was very close to him. Lucy Capitano Hastings does not have a computer and asked me to send her condolences and my sister Judy Rivero who also does not have a computer sends her condolences. I am sorry I couldn't attend last nights benefit, the weather was horrible. I will try to make it this Saturday

You called me three times a day to make sure everything was ok. We laughed we shed lots for tears and a whole lot of secrets that you went to your grave with ... You came into my life when I needed you the most and treated me like I was your daughter..you never judged me but always gave me the best advise a friend could ask for. My life will never be the same without you.. Until me meet again I love you and miss you very much .. xoxox

Dickie, you were known as the Master Blaster, but you were also The Dance Master. I was a lucky girl, because I danced with you. I am so sorry for your passing, but now.....you are pain free. I can almost see you dancing among the clouds. RIP my friend, save a dance for me when we meet again. Your sweet Mom (Lola) wanted to be there when you arrived. My deepest sympathy for your family.

I will never forget the last time I saw Dickie. Although he was fighting the cancer in every way, he had a peace about him that was both comforting and inspiring. He told me that he wanted to see his dad and couldn't wait to see his grandmother. And though I'm sure it was so hard for all of his family to lose Dickie's mom as well, I believe they are all happy together. Dickie also told me that he and the "Big Guy" were getting closer and I rejoice in that as assurance that his passing was truly a home-going. of his heart. God Bless his family left to mourn, especially Tami, who showed what a daughter can be by her care and love. RIP and love, Mr. Garcia.

Dickie, first I want to tell you what an awesome father figure you have been to me. You came into my life when I really didn't know what life was about. You were my mentor, my friend and someone I loved to argue with. I will always cherish that. I have always looked up to you and you never gave up on me and for that I thank you very much. You made me laugh, cry and put me in my place when needed. I want you to know you will always be on my mind and look forward to joining you so we can "ROCK" heaven! ! Until then rest in peace my friend. I love you! Julie :

I have so many fond memories but the most recent was when I went to see him 2 days before his passing. I came to visit and he was asleep. When I awoke him and said "Dickie it's Scarey Cherie...Boo" he looked up at me and said "Boo". I love him and will never forget him. His legacy will live on in his daughter, my sister from another mother, and my daughter's Godmother Tami.

Dear Daddy, I knew this would be hard losing you. But what I didn't realize is how lonely and heart broken I am without you. You were my best friend and mentor, not just my daddy. I don't think a father and daughter could have been any closer than you and I were in these last months. I was blessed by God to have you as my dad. I'm very proud of that. The mold was broke when you were born. And I believe many will agree. In this last year, I watched you fight cancer tooth and nail and I found strength in myself that I never knew was there before. Thank you daddy for showing me what a true fighter is. "It's the strength you find within yourself" right daddy? I'm so glad we fought your battle together. I would have never change a thing. Except to selfishly keep you here with me. I know God has called you home to take care of all your friends and family, like you always have. But this time standing next to our Lord himself and without any pain nor worries. I'm gonna miss Daddy. Until we meet again..I Love you! Tami
