Nanette, we were best of friends in our early teen years, the many sleep overs and the crazy things we did. I have always thought of you as the years past but I will always treasure that chance meeting in Downtown in 2014. It was a great joy to see you, hug you and exchange numbers. You were still as beautiful as always. It came as a huge shock to hear of your passing. I hope your spirit is free and you are smiling down on all the family and friends that miss and love you very much. My prayers are with your children and your family in this time of sadness. May the wonderful memories keep you alive in their hearts and find the comfort they need to keep going. Rest in peace my friend. God bless to your family. Tanya Oliva-Carroll

I met Nanette in the 5th grade at BC Graham and fell in love with her the day I layed my eyes on her. She was the prettiest girl in school. She was neighbor and we became good friends. As we grew, attended high school, slowly went our separate ways, and entered our separate lives I always kept a special place in my heart for Nanette. She was a beautiful girl and a beautiful person who will truly be missed. My prayers and love go to her and her family. Love, Jerry Comellas

Mom, it still doesn't seem real. I know today will be my first dose of reality. When the clock strikes midnight and I can't pick up the phone and call to wish you a happy new year, that's when it will hit. I haven't left your room and I sleep with your jacket but what will I do when the smell fades and I have to return to my own home? I love you mom, it has always been unconditionally no matter what may have crossed your mind. I hope you know how much I miss you. Your passing has shattered my core, brought me to my knees and hollowed my heart. This is killing me. I know that everybody says your resting in peace, but I don't fully believe that. I know the person you are and know that you are still struggling because your babies are so distraught. I'll take care of DJ mamma, I promise to put up Christmas trees and sing happy birthday to him every year. I'll be there in his happy times and the times when he is lost. So don't worry. Try to be at peace and know that at some point I will find mine. I love you mamma and I know I'll see you again. Till that day comes, you are in my heart forever. Love you mamma.
