I have known Yolie for more than 20 years. Everyone knew that she loved her Lord & her family more than anything. She was the most loving mom and grand mom . She not only adored her children she loved her friends so much and was always caring and sharing. I loved to talk on the phone with her & hear her faith & strength which came from Jesus. She & I prayed together many times & I am so happy she is no longer in pain. She now is clothed in righteousness and has a crown with many jewels. What an exceptional woman she was and I love her very much. Yolie, you will be missed but we will see each other again!! Sherry Henry
