She was a great lady with a kind heart. When others were not so kind she pulled me aside one day and told me not to listen to their cruel words. She said she knew the kind of teacher I was, my heart was in the right place and that I work wonders with the kids. I have missed her smiling face on campus.

My thoughts and prayers are with Bruce, Suzette, Billy, and Heather. May God bless you all during this difficult time. Know that I love you all and wish I could just wrap my arms around you right now. My fondest memories of Janette of ones of love, laughter, and motherly advice. My heart is heavy with the loss of such a tremendous Spirit as hers. I feel blessed that she was able to meet my son and love him and even give him some of the same sweet advice. She even shared some of her love of music with him. I think one of the greatest things I will miss is her fantastic smile. I will always love you mama and never forget. God be with you til we meet again. Sigue sonriendo porque su sonrisa es la mas bella. Te voy a extrañar mucho, pero se que ya estas con Dios en la gloria y El te va dar todas las bendiciones lindas que te mereces. Besitos y abrazos fuertes mamita linda. Con amor y cariño, Lesley Vega Stubbs

There's a ship sailing on to a harbor, To a haven of comfort and rest; It's a ship of God's fashion and making, And its voyage by him will be blessed. It departed with silence and beauty, With the Master, Himself, in command; As with dignity truly majestic it sailed out of sight of all land. There will always be clear skies above it; There will always be calmness below; There will never be storms to harass it, For the Master is on it, you know, And his wisdom will carry it safely To the port of His infinite peace, Where the light of His love will protect it With a blessing that never will cease. You have watched it sail onward and outward, With a tear of regret in your eye, For a loved one was sailing on it, And there's grief when you're saying goodbye. But your tears would be tears of rejoicing, And your heart would be happy and free, If you could look only a moment On that ship that is sailing to sea. For the one you have loved is at leisure, With no worry or trouble or care; There's contentment beyond understanding, In the way God's passengers fare. And you know from your own observation That the sailing was joyful-not grim, For it means new life and new living, And a sweet, closer contact with Him. Oh, the solace there is in the knowledge, Life is life and it always will be, And it's simply a change of direction When we sail on His ship out to sea. And the tears that we shed for our loved ones Are in truth shed for us left behind, For it hurts to give up to the Master, Tho we know He is gentle and kind. So believe in His great and good wisdom, Trust in Him, as you patiently wait; On His ship God is ever the pilot, And the one you loved is the mate.
