I knew Gloria from Line Dance Class and the many activities that she joined in at Barksdale Active Adult Center. She was a beautiful, caring, sweet and always thoughtful person. We could always count on Gloria for a laugh, hug or to share our everyday experiences. She was loved and will continue to be loved by many in Barksdale and always remembered. As I do my steps, I will sadly look at the spot where she lined danced and lovingly think of her. I will treasure the pictures we took together as a group. Rest in the arms of God and all the Angels Gloria, you deserve a great spot in Heaven. My condolences to her family. Mirta Button
