My fondest memorie was when Cody and Dylan would come over to my house asking to play with Jezebelle (our 90 lb pittie). They would lie down on the ground, heads near each other and Jezebelle would give them big sloppy kisses until they were both laughing. The winner of the game was the one that did not sit up to get away from her kisses. Dylan, I am so sorry for your loss. To the entire family, hold each other close and know there are many people who are mourning your loss. Bill and Linda Myers, Kissimmee, FL

My deepest condelences to the family, the hardest loss is one of a son, especially so young in life. God Is close to the broken hearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit (Psalms 34:18) I can assure that he will remain close to you through these hard times. May the love of those around you also help getting through these difficult days.
