Eric Noriega lit a candle in honor of Patsy.

I attended school with Patsy's son and daughter at St. Lawrence back in the late '60s and early '70s. Patsy was always very kind to me whenever I came to visit Chris at their home or when I saw her at St. Lawrence functions. I was very saddened to read of her demise. My deepest sympathies to the family. ~Eric Noriega

I want to publicly express my deepest condolences to the Friend family. Mrs. Friend was a very influential person in my early life as my Girl Scout leader. She also was the mother of one of my dearest childhood friends, Maggie. I know that she and Mr. Friend raised two very fine children, both of them wonderful people, each influential in their own way. Job well done, Mrs. Friend. May you rest in peace.

Thank you Susan, your condolences are greatly appreciated...

Maggie Friend May 15 at 11:09 AM

Oh Susan, this is such a fitting tribute. Just perfect. I'm so glad for my mother's early influence on you through Girl Scouts. What a wonderful achievement for her that you became such a strong, self-made woman. Thank you so much for your kind support.
