I know you struggled in life, but you are now free! Free of your earthly body, free of pain, free of doctors, and free to rejoice and join our mother and father in Heaven. I'm sure you're praising Him and playing a musical instrument in His Kingdom. I will always remember you by keeping your memory alive in my heart. God speed, Curt!

Curt and I spent much time together in high school and a couple of years afterward before I moved out of state. He was one of my best friends. He helped me through some of the darkest times in my life and I will forever be grateful to him. May God's peace and love be with him, his family and friends. You are truly missed. Much love.....
