I Happen to beCeli's flower girl in his first marriage to my sister...He would always, whenever I was around, made sure to mention and tell everyone that was his flower girl..He was a very good man, provider, and father to his five daughters..God sure blessed him in many ways...with his daughters and also was very blessed that after my sister passed, God put Maria in his life...so he was not only lucky and blessed to have one great family, but blessed to have a second family with his now wife " Maria ", He did live a good life and left a great legacy.....five great daughters, wonderful grandkids and great grandkids, and a wonderful wife that was very good to him... I will always remember my brother in law, as one always willing to help anyone at anytime...RIP CELI & and tell my sister and Mom that I miss them both very much.....love Margaret 😭😭
