Terry, today I went looking for you, my forever joyous friend. The awareness of you fills me with Joy as much now as ever. Thank you for making my heart bubble with delight. Your stories and antics ever the BEST. 2 new friends came into my life this year without a kidney..Did you do that trickster?.I love you even more now that I am older and wiser but a lot less FUN without you. See you soon. Love Always and thanks again Sharon Graff I'm going to try to find Jackie now

Mary K. White lit a candle in honor of Terrence "Terry".

Sorry to hear of your brother passing. We remember him growing up. He was just a little older than all of us. I remember when coming to your house and seeing everyone. What a great childhood we all had. Love to your family.

Terry was such a kind and thoughtful person. I was blessed to have him for a son-in-law. How many men bring their Mother-in-law flowers, candy etc. May you have eternal rest Terry.
