Dear Irene, Brian and family of Mimi, Though we know of Mimi thru Irene, our sympathies are to all her family who beautifully supported her thru the final leg of her journey in this life. I picture her now, in the warm embrace of our Lord Jesus and being lovingly and eternally spoiled by her loving husband. May we all look this good at 90! Gods Peace to you all....

Dear Diane and Family, Please accept our condolences. While we just met Mimi a few years ago, we were impressed by her spirit. I would have loved to have know her youth. I bet she was a pistol. Please enjoy the good memories. Rosalie and Manuel Perrone

Mimi was a wonderful and caring grandmother (and great-grandmother). Each Christmas "Nana MiMi" and "Nano Johnny" decorated every inch of their home with beautiful and whimsical decorations, which mesmerized and delighted their grandchildren! And, of course, her grandchildren and the rest of the family will remember all of her various delicious Christmas cookies! MiMi will also be remembered as always being "the life of the party!"
