John and I shared a long term business relationship to become very good friends. He is survived by an awesome family who I hope to stay in contact with, loved the annual Christmas party where he insisted a burn out in the Trans Am. One of the finest people to ever meet we have all lost a good friend and brother. Bruce Duncan

John and I met and worked together 46 years ago at a Lincoln dealership. John was a good friend. We spent time together hunting, fishing, socializing. I looked up to John, as he was a wonderful role model for any father to follow. He threw marathon Christmas parties and everyone showed up.A bunch of us guys had a horse ranch we had so many laughs.He was in My wedding party and I feel so bad he will be missed.I am John Mannone's wife Linda. I was fortunate to have known John and Aurora spending many years socializing with them. John was a true family man loved by his friends, and family. He will be so missed by many. I send my condolences to his wife, children and family. Love John, Linda Mannone and family.
