I just learned of this , i wish peace to my friend george, i loved him dearly, i would visit him once a month up from tampa, i learned many things about his life in the past years , he spoke to me of his grandsons, trucks, his daughter, the war, did u know he could still speak some japanese, his dogs, it broke his heart when one disappeared, his crazy dog morgan that i fed my beef jerky to, we spoke of my life, even tho i am 24 years younger than george. We share many tales. Love u old man...

Hello BuddyGeorge actually had 2 daughters. His oldest was Glenda and she had a son Joseph who has 3 children. I guess some things were never talked about between you two.
