It's terrible to hear about the loss of a sweet young lady such as KC. I express my sincere sympathy to her family and friends. KC meant a lot to my soul sister Mercedes Marquetti. May Almighty God have her gentle soul by His side and may He grant peace to those who loved her here on earth.

My heart is filled with tears and sorrow of your loss but filled with hope as we will see you again beautiful Kazy. I can remember you being born, walking in my wedding, and having girl talk. Abel, Genesis and I will miss you so much but we know you are in a much better place. To Tere, Adali, Kassady and Ely our prayers are that he gives to your heart exactly what you need He is the only one that can do that. We love you all.

To My Beloved Daughter KC,How can I describe in words what you meant to me. You have been the sunshine in my life.The day you were born I felt this indescribable love. One I had never known before. From the beginning of your life I never knew I could have a love that was so strong. You came into my life and changed me forever. You taught me love.You are the strongest person I have ever known and you gave me strength when I was weak. When times were sad and tough I looked to you for strength. You have always been my greatest pride and joy. I'm not sure how I am going to live this life without you.Momma loves you so much and misses you.

Nothing could be more free than a bird, soaring high to the Heavens to watch over you and your family. Kazzandra wanted to take care of her family, she's now been given a better way to do that with the help of others that love and care for her and all of you. I will always keep her and all of the family and friends of this beautiful, loving and wonderful spirit alive in my heart forever!! God Bless you ALL and may the Lord keep you all wrapped in his warm, loving arms and embrace you always!! Sent from one of your Fams!! Trish Hess in West Virginia (originally from Florida also).
