I will miss my Zio (we called him "Zio Chichino" all our life, I'm sure I spelled it wrong, but thats how it sounds). One of my best memories is when me, Brandon Spicola, and the guys took him fishing, he was in his 70's. Who would have known he loved it, we had such a blast. He was singing out loud with the radio to rock music as if he was a rock star! We were all thinking "how does he know the words", best day ever spent with him. God bless you Chichi, your nephew loves you dearly.

Paul E Strausbaugh Iii lit a candle in honor of Francesco.

Hi Jenny and Vi, We will all miss Frank very much. I remember all the Christmas dinner parties at my Uncle Henry's house with the roast pork, pizza and Italian sausage sandwiches. Frank and your family were always there supporting ours. I am very saddened that we are unable to attend the service and share in your celebration of Frank's life. Please accept our floral arrangement sent to Boza & Roel for Fridays service. Love Paul & Randi Strausbaugh
