It's been almost 6 years since you left us. I never read any of these lovely words from friends and family until today February 10,2024. You left a void in my heart that can never be filled. You were my soul mate and I miss your humor, laughter and intelligent nature everyday of my life. My life will never be the same because when you left this earth you left parts of yourself with everyone that loved you. I'm know there are still so many hearts that ache like mine when we miss you. I would never be the person I am today without you. We spent 18 wonderful years together. My life is so different since you left. They all left me but a few and so the hurt was doubled. I guess that must happen with death. I don't really know because I never lost a husband but it hurt to the bone. I wil love you always and forever and I will see you on the other side. My heart is with you every single day ❤️

Denise and I were introduced to Joe by his beautiful wife and our good friend Becky at a get together at Beef 'O' Brady's many years ago. Joe and I talked about sports and other topics and was the type of person that made you feel very comfortable, as if you had known him for a very long time. We would like to express our deepest sympathy and condolences to Becky and Family. We pray that our Lord and Savior comfort you all during this very difficult time. Mike & Denise Catledge

I will miss my nephew so much, he had. Wonderful Sense of humor. Love it when he would meet his mom and me for dinner many nights, he would keep us laughing. He was a wonderful husband, son to my sister and a very loving father to his daughter Samantha. He will be missed by everyone who ever had the blessing to have known and loved him. You will never be forgotten. As kids he stayed with me on New Year's eve with my two kids and at 12 o'clock I gave them each a little sip of wine. When the ball fell I started to cry. He said why are you crying Aunt Rose this is new year celebration drinking wine. love you Joe. In our hearts forever. Aunt Rose

I can remember Joe, he was my nephew, I babysat him. Went to a shoe store to return a pair of loafers, that his grandfather Popeye, bought for him, that were way too large. Being a funny kid, he walked to show the lady how big they were, and let them fly in the air. Such funny memories, beautiful memory. Rest in peace by funny nephew. Hal and Marie Gray
