The special memories of my mother will always make me smile. I will miss all of our conversations and how we could sit and talk for hours. You always found a way to make the tough times easier. I'll cherish the way you handled your responsibilities, even though they must have seemed terrible. You were such a great cook, we all loved to come together and eat your delicious food. It always brought us together as a family. The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain, but you're forever in my heart ❤️

They say there's a reason, they say time will heal But, neither the time or reason, will change the way I feel. For no one knows the heart ache that lies behind my smile, No one knows The many times, I have a broken bone and cried, I want to tell you something, so they won't be any doubt, You're so wonderful to think of, But so hard to live without. my beloved mother.
