Irma was a dear friend of many years, only sorry that I did not know of her death.. Visited her many times in Assisted Living and and Nursing Home. We were like Sisters and after her DH Richard died we took her every Thanksgiving and Christmas to our Sons along with another Widow lady. I will go to their graves and show my respect. Due to my health conditions I was unable to get to see her for several months, but last time I saw her I took a large Bumble Bee and she still recognized me. RIP Irma, you are in a much better place. God will be close by. I have many pictures of us on our Navy SeaBee Conventions and will keep them handy to look at. You may be gone, but never forgotten.Marsha Bashline
