Hi Alex.I am cleaning the closet out, and in the bottom of the closet are these silly things.Oh shoot, I have all your clothes in the closet and in the dresser...I do not want to wash them as it still has your scent with them...I do not want even the slightest of what is left of you in this world even if its until we meet again...I do not want to lose this as it is all I have with the exception of our memories..God I miss you.....Mark

I still remember receiving a call from a dear friend that a precious baby girl had just come into their life. Later, I saw her playing with her little sister. Life takes us through different paths, so I am sorry that I did not get to know Alex as she got older. I have learned that she was very special and could see into other's souls. So sorry that she must have been in pain to recognize other's needs and sufferings.. May you rest in peace dear Alex.My condolences to Mary, Curt, Sofia and the rest of the family. May God and wonderful memories, give you comfort at this difficult time. Abrazos.
