I reconnected with Frank in October of 2017 after no contact for 40 years. We both had our lives to live but in different directions. I was happy I got to spend what little time there was, laughing and visiting via Text messages (thank you technology). I was fortunate to have visited him for a few days about this very time last year. We checked in with each other nearly daily, even if it were just a simple, "Have a Good Day". Our friendship was golden as was our ages. I thank you Frank (as I sometimes called him) for all the laughter, wisdom and yes, sarcasm. You will always live in my heart and you will always be on my mind. Will miss you and our daily texts and I am so thankful that you let me be a part of your last year here, until we meet again. RIP Frank, you deserve to! As Ever, Cheryl
