My deepest condolences to the family. I had not spoken with Arthur in many years, and just recently found out about his passing. My heart is saddened by the news. I pray that he is at peace. I met Arthur in the late 70's, when he was an executive at the Lake Pageant Estates. He kept in touch off and on through the years, and I knew he spent time in London, negotiating various contacts in European countries. He was a stunning and exceptional man. I shall always remember his love of food and excellent restaurants. He taught me that "an outstanding restaurant has a signature bread; and, it is a part of the dining experience". He is missed. Godspeed my friend.
