Jonathan Berrios

MAR 7, 1973 - SEP 18, 2020

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD.
Across the sky flashed scenes from his life.

For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him,
he looked back at the footprints in the sand.

He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints.

He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it:

"LORD, you said that once I decided to follow
you, you'd walk with me all the way.

But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life,

there is only one set of footprints.

I don't understand why when

I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied:

"My son, my precious child,

I love you and I would never leave you.

During your times of trial and suffering,

when you see only one set of footprints,
it was then that I carried you."

Alfonso Rodriguez lit a candle in honor of Jonathan.

I was coming home from night school and had assignments to do. Had writers block on an essay that was overdue and needed to finish it for the next day. Spent a couple of hours erasing what I would write and was frustrated. In comes Jonathan pats me on the back and unblocked my writers block. All he said was to just don't think about it, walked away with the drums he was banging. I aced the essay the next day. Thank you JB. I now rarely get writers block.

Alfonso Rodriguez sent a virtual gift in honor of Jonathan.

Jonathan always was there to comfort us when things were in state of despair and those qualities is one of the reasons that I will never forget my dear friend and brother from another mother. His parents always fed us after playing football with open arms and made us feel as part of the family. My sincere condolences. Forever JB!
