Please accept my condolences.I called her my "Lil Sis". She was a wonderful person who loved her family and loved to travel. She took the most beautiful pictures of her trips. We would go to lunch and shop almost every day. She loved shoes and her mini coupe. The PUD BBQ will not be the same without her! I can go on and on...She will be missed tremendously.Rest peacefully Lil Sis...your work-sister Ronda

Every time I came in contact with Elizabeth she had such a big smile on her face & talked about her family! You can tell the love she had & how proud of them she was every time I asked how they were doing. She was a beautiful person inside and out and I am grateful I can call her my friend. You will be missed young lady by so many! God bless you all & my sincere condolences!

In loving memory of my friend Elizabeth "Liz" Leal. You always gave me love, friendship & accountability. When someone says that a person has a beautiful soul, typically they're referring to someone with a kind, giving nature. Someone confident, genuine, balanced & understanding. People with beautiful souls make others feel safe & at peace. A Beautiful Soul you are to me. My Prayers of Strength, Comfort, Understanding & Peace to the entire family (she really loves her family). I share in your sorrow. My condolences to you all. #GoodMorningBeautifulSoul
