I am so terribly sorry for your loss. It truly breaks my heart because Bob and Karey and the horse farm in Lutz was one of the only things that not only gave me a decent childhood, but also helped shape me into the woman I am today. Bob became my stepfather when I was 7 years old. My real father was never around and when he was it never went well. For those reasons Bob was essential to me, I looked up to him very much like a father. I am now 40 years old, and I would give anything to be able to tell him just how much he meant to me, and just how much of a positive impact he had on my life. It might have only been 6 years, but it was enough to last a lifetime. I wouldn't be who I am today if not for his influence and I will forever be grateful for the way he selflessly welcomed me into his home, life and family. He showed me how real fathers treat and love their children and I pass that love and knowledge on every day to my own children. Thank you so much for everything Bob McGee! You will be truly missed. My condolences to your beautiful wife and family. I pray that I didn't cross any lines or offend anybody in any way for commenting as I just wanted to pay my respects. From your ex-stepdaughter Tiffany
