Max was a wonderful man and friend. He would come and sit in my chair and didn't want to leave. He would bring me a Wawa sandwich every time he came. he loved their breakfast sandwiches with mayonnaise and their coffee. This is a hard pill to have to swallow, i know we all have to leave this earth one day but Max you left us too soon. May you rest in peace and know that I will always cherish our memories at Moffitt and I love you. Shenita.....

Max was my brother-in-law and my mom adored him. He was a good guy. Always new where to go get lechon. He was a pretty good dancer too, I pray that he repented so we can see each other again. God rest his soul.

Alex I drew your dad's blood every time he came to Moffitt for treatments. My heart is broken. I loved your dad so much, he would sit in my chair and talk about Dino I. This hurts deeply. Can someone call me please, I went by the house and left a note in the door. Again I'm so sorry for your loss. Love you Max always. Shenita
