My darling Princess Jazzie, there is forever a hello kitty shaped hole in the universe and the world will never be the same without your beautiful quiet nature and perfect smile. My little love, you came into my life as a patient, you left it as my friend, my little bestie, the sender of my favourite daily text messages, the bringer of absolute joy. I will never stop missing our snuggles, our movie time, our popcorn and nerd balls snacks and our Panda Express sweet and sour chicken! You lit up the world and everyone in it. You were a baby warrior cub, always loving and thinking about your mum and your family. I promise that i will always keep you in my heart and look for your guiding light to shine me through any dark days. I love you endlessly baby Jazz. My heart is utterly broken but I am so glad you are at peace. Fly high little, fly high. Colleen
