Francisco Salabarría

AUG 11, 1936 - NOV 12, 2023

In Loving Memory of Frank "Gato" Salabarría, Jr.

Frank was born in Tampa, Florida on August 11, 1936, and died November 12, 2023, at the hardy age of 87. Frank was a deeply devoted family man and self-taught master craftsman with his own business, Florida Countertops, through which he serviced the greater Tampa Bay area for several decades. He enjoyed joking with those he loved, playing cards and Cuban dominoes with his life-long club mates, fishing, and hosting and cooking for his family. A master storyteller; Frank often shared stories of his life adventures and experiences, through which he imparted great wisdom and insight.

Frank was preceded by his much- adored wife of 43 years, Dolores Salabarría.

Frank was truly the anchor of his family and will always be loved and warmly remembered by his sister Margaret and brother-in-law Robert Castillo, his children Roxanne Hemmerling, Valerie Salabarría, Deborah McDade, Frank Salabarría (Son), Linda Lee, and his numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

We all Love You Dearly and you will always be in our hearts and thoughts.
Your rest is well deserved.
