Douglas Bass posted:

I met Jan around 1991 when she and her then-husband Joe Hipp were active members at North Rome Baptist Church. I would go to their home on Friday evenings to watch movies we rented from Blockbusters, and enjoy a nice meal. Another fond memory is that of a hymn she and I sang for a special, while Joe played piano--we sang "In the Garden", and on the third stanza I continued singing the refrain while Jan sang the words of another song, "Saved, Saved." I moved to north Florida in 1996 to attend Bible college, and in 2001 Jan, Joe, and a mutual friend (Molly Emmons) came to my graduation. Some years later Joe passed away, and then around 2010 when Jan and Dale were wed, I had the privilege of attending their wedding. Doug Bass
