Jorge Valentin Vazquez

SEP 6, 1989 - MAR 22, 2024

In honor of Jorge's memory,
let us reflect on the words:
Say not in grief that he is no more but live in thankfulness that he was.
— HEBREW PROVERB

Jorge Valentin, a devoted father and diligent worker, passed away on March 22, 2024. He leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and cherished memories. The love for his three children: Zurina, Meeyah, and James gave him strength and motivated him to work hard for his family.

He was born on September 6th 1989 in Tampa, Florida to Jorge E. Vazquez and Patrica M. Vazquez.

Jorge Valentin is survived by his mother Patricia M. Vazquez, Sisters Erica Gonell, Yolany Gonell, Lydia Vazquez and Selena Vazquez; and children Zurina Vazquez, Meeyah Vazquez, and James Tierney Vazquez.

Beyond his role as a father, brother and son, Jorge was a true friend. He loved spending time with his close-knit circle, sharing laughter, stories, and good cold beer. His generosity knew no bounds, and he was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need.

Jorge Valentin will be dearly missed by family, friends, and all whose lives he touched. May his memory continue to inspire us to cherish the moments we create with our loved ones.

I'm so deeply sorry for your families loss. I knew Jorge since the dickenson elementary. We linked back up went he went of Davidson middle and went to Alonso together. He always brought me joy every time I saw him. So hilariously funny. I'll miss him dearly.

I just found out today that one of the most incredible people I have ever met has passed. J.V., you had a smile that lit up the room. We shared many laughs together, and supported each other during difficult times. My wife Krista and I are devastated over the news that you are no longer with us. We remember you helping us out on more than one occasion and you popping by for an impromptu dinner when you were in the area. You loved Krista's cooking and we shared many laughs. It was an honor to have known you. I am saddened by the fact that I will no longer see you in this lifetime, but I look forward to seeing you in the next. Sending positive vibes and prayers to you and your family.

I don't know how to start this but i miss you and words can't describe the hurt me, meeyah, and james are going through. You are and were the best dad ever and we will always think about you and always think about the good times we all had as a family. I'm gonna miss you bothering me when i was mad so that you could make me smile again, or when you would ask me to massage your cheesy feet 🤪. This just doesn't feel real at all but i promise you i'll make you proud and make sure to achieve the things that you weren't able too. I'll make sure to take care of meeyah and james just like you would've wanted me too. Until we meet again daddy i love you. ❤️.

My baby brother, you are truly missed. I am so proud of the man that you became. You had so many dreams, and as they came true, you could see the light in you shine so bright with happiness. We still can't believe you got your LLC and decided to name it JV Strongcock Haul and Transport; we couldn't believe it, but you did it, papa, and made this crazy name legit. You said you were going to get your Semi-truck license, and you did, which scared Mom and me just because we know your true history with vehicles. You made it five years with FedEx as a safe driver, and I remember you showing the coin they give you each year. You were saying that you were going to get back into school to finish math, which we won't talk about. Every goal, whether big or small, you make happen. I still remember looking through your wallet and being like, Vale why you got all these credentials and not putting them to use, and you say, Sis, you never know when you'll need it. He was a jack of all trades, or tried to be. When he believed in something, he put his whole heart into it. I have heard so many great stories that bring joy to my heart and comfort, knowing that people also see you in the same light. You were tough when you needed to be, loved wholeheartedly, and funny as hell, and I still don't know where you came up with most of the stuff that came out of your mouth. I will miss you calling or texting saying, "Sis, I got you Friday, or man, can you come get me? I got a flat." You're main priority has always been your children, family, and friends, but they were more than that; they became family. Until we meet again, I love you and your forever in my heart.
