JUL 10, 1974 - MAY 1, 2024

Dr. Phanxico Xavier Tin Trong Huynh
Vovinam Double-Belt Martial Arts Master
Former Vice President of Vietnamese Community of Tampa Bay
July 10, 1974 – May 1, 2024

Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never fails.... 1 Corinthians 13:7-8(a)

In eternal memory of Dr. Tin Huynh, a cherished father, husband, and esteemed acupuncturist, who graced our lives with his gentle presence and unwavering compassion. On May 1, 2024, as he peacefully departed from this world at St. Joseph Hospital in Tampa, FL, a profound sense of loss enveloped us all. What was meant to be a day of healing turned into a heartbreaking farewell, as Dr. Tin bravely faced acute promyelocytic leukemia, leaving us stunned by the suddenness of his departure.

Survived by his loving parents, Dr. Tam Huynh and Lien Nguyen, his brother, Tri Huynh, sister-in-law Trish Huynh, his niece and nephew Madison and Alexander, as well as the love of his life - his wife, Sydney Trinh, and his two precious children - Haley and Ethan.

Dr. Tin's essence was pure love, radiating through his every smile and gesture. His commitment to easing the pain of others knew no bounds, touching countless souls with his wisdom and kindness. Dr. Tin was not just a healer; he was a beacon of hope, illuminating the darkest corners of despair with his boundless empathy.

Though his physical presence may be absent, his spirit continues to guide us, comforting us in our grief and inspiring us to carry on his legacy of selfless service. The void he leaves behind is immeasurable, yet the memories of his warmth and generosity will forever linger in our hearts, offering solace in our darkest hours.

When he did a treatment for me, he made me laugh because I always spasmed a little when he would needle me. And he said that my body was happy to see him that would I wiggle. Whenever he tested my pulse I always noticed the most softest touch I ever experienced from a man, so gentle. It was like a caress, so very sweet.
