Andy will be greatly missed. He brings back lots of great memories I have from the days we worked together in Brooksville for Bellsouth/AT&T. He was always a great help during my time there. My heart goes out to Nancy and the rest of the family. Truly a great loss!

Andy was my Bonus Dad. Welcoming me from as long as I can remember: tagging along when they played CoEd Softball, camping, canoeing & road trips. He knew any kind of sports stats and Trivia when asked. I would always ask..""why don't you try out for Jeopardy..You could win a million dollars"? He would just smile and blurt out the next answer. Andy, you will be dearly missed but the memories will live on.We all Love youDenise(sister-in-law)and Guy Ohland

We will miss Andy dearly. Our fond memories of two exciting trips to Europe with he, Nancy and the boys, many ball games with the Rays and Bucs, arts and crafts festivals, wine festivals, Florida State Fairs, dinners at restaurants celebrating so many birthdays and special occasions and countless spontaneous garage and poolside gatherings with BBQ, beer and copious laughter ....bring a smile to our face and will remain with us forever.
