Vazquez, Karen

DEC 31, 2004 - SEP 1, 2025

Quierida Virgen, en este día de gozo, celebramos tu nacimiento.

El Padre celestial te eligió por tu corazón puro para ser la madre del Salvador. Te pedimos que intercedas por nosotros, para que día tras día amemos más a Jesús, no temamos las dificultades y seamos fieles a nuestra misión. Que seamos como Tú, humildes y obedientes, y caminemos en el camino de la santidad. Amén.

"Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, far as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart."

words can't explain how beautiful and awesome Karen was. she was the most genuine most sweetest girl i have ever been friends with. she was my first ever bestfriend, all throughout middle school and she never left my side. i remember us just in 6th grade:(i don't know how i would've done middle school without her.

she always had my back, always gave me the best advice, it feels like we grew up together and we always had eachother to lean on. i will never forget how important Karen made me feel as a person she always made sure that i never felt like i was alone. we kept in contact and she always checked up on me randomly and that's something i really loved about her. her smile and laugh was always my favorite thing about her just such a beautiful girl. my heart hurts for my childhood bestfriend. love her forever☐☐☐

I've seen & met Karen a few times for when Jackie & Julio invited us to events and I remember speaking to Karen for the first time at baby Jazlyn's 1st birthday party and the event hall restrooms were not in service and she took us to Jackie and Julio's home so that I can use the restroom and I thought it was a walking distance but we had to take the car and we were laughing. She drove us to the place and we were getting to know each other and only in those little minutes I could really feel how genuine and good hearted she was. She was a really beautiful person inside and out and I know God is taking really good care of her right now. May she rest in peace 🕊️🕊️🕊️
