Ediberto Cortes Medina

MAY 1, 1958 - JAN 17, 2026

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

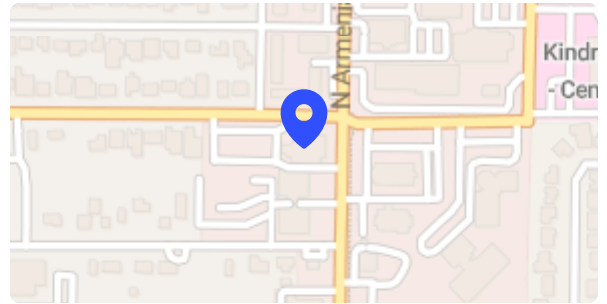

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun; Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Ediberto Cortes Medina

MAY 1, 1958 - JAN 17, 2026

Adrian Cortes lit a candle in honor of Ediberto.

Ediberto Medina Cortes. Wonderful man who has led our family by example. He has shown us what a man truly does no matter how small it is. He cares with all of his heart and kept pushing. It's unfortunate that I rejected one last gift that he gave me but even so, I'm happy I got to see him one last time with his smile.

In loving memory of Ediberto Cortes Medina, my step-grandad. I am and will be forever grateful to call you family. He was so funny, outgoing, and never had a dull moment when he was around. Thank you for the laughter, life stories, knowledge, and joy you brought into my life. You will be deeply missed.

Today we remember Ediberto Cortes Medina — a truly good man, and someone who was always a pleasure to be around. He wasn't a man of long speeches or exhaustive dissertations, but a man of dignity, pride, and class. And sometimes, that says far more. Ediberto had a way of uplifting a room simply by walking into it. He did things his way, always with kindness, gratitude, and a genuine smile. None of us are here forever, but some people leave a real mark on the lives they touch. Ediberto made a difference, and because of that, he will truly be missed. And if Ediberto were standing here with us now, he'd probably say one more thing: Keep your seatbelt on. Rest easy, my friend. You will not be forgotten.—Ted Robinson Jr. The Police Ediberto was more than my stepdad he was a steady presence, a protector and a source of quiet strength in our lives. He showed his love through his actions and sacrifices the way he showed up when it mattered most. His unwavering guidance, laughter won't be forgotten. He was loved by many as he cared for many. The memories we shared both big and small will live in our hearts though his absence leaves a deep ache in our hearts we are grateful for the love he gave so freely and lessons he left behind. Ediberto spirit will continue to live on through the family he cherished and the lives he touched.
