With heavy hearts, we announce the tragic loss of our beloved brother, son, father, and friend, Jesús Alberto Galván, who was taken from us on March 22, 2026, at 4 a.m.

Born on June 20, 1985, Jesús, lovingly known as Tito, was a beacon of love, strength, and bravery. He was not just a brother but a devoted son, a loving father, and a loyal friend. a nada. Era un verdadero guerrero, un “hombre de cero”, que enfrentaba la vida de frente y siempre defendía lo que creía.

El corazón de Tito era tan grande como su sonrisa, y siempre estaba dispuesto a ayudar a quien lo necesitara, especialmente a aquellos en peligro. Era un héroe en todos los sentidos, siempre poniendo a los demás antes que a sí mismo y protegiendo a quienes amaba.

Conocido por su arduo trabajo y su compromiso inquebrantable con su familia, Tito haría cualquier cosa por sus hijos y tenía un vínculo irrompible con sus hermanos. Su amor y dedicación no conocían límites, y tocó las vidas de todos los que lo rodeaban con su bondad y generosidad.

Deja atrás a sus amados hijos, sus padres, sus hermanos y hermanas, y una multitud de familiares y amigos que siempre guardarán su recuerdo en sus corazones.

Aunque ya no esté con nosotros, el espíritu, el amor y las innumerables vidas que tocó Jesús “Tito” Alberto Galván continuarán inspirándonos y guiándonos.

Descansa en paz, Jesús “Tito” Alberto Galván. Siempre serás amado y nunca serás olvidado.

Hey brother my heart weighs heavy as I hear the news You deserve better you were taking too early me and you we were family and we were brothers our loyalty for what we stood for and what we stood on meant everything to us as kids and as adults growing up I remember the good and I remember the bad but no matter which one it was we were side by side You was one of a kind most ain't built like you You were built to be humble You were built to be loyal You were built 100 you were built a king I mourn your loss today anybody who knew you knows I could write a book about all the good and all the real you are when I got the news Thursday I tried to make it from Tennessee to make your viewing today I could not make it happen but I'm going to get in touch with Mom and I will do all I can for your family and most importantly last time we talked you talked about your kids and how you wanted to do better and grow to do better as I told you that night brother sometimes it's not our trials and tribulations it's the hand we were dealt and we got to make what's best of it we talked about you moving down here and I guess our higher power needed you more. Either way our main conversation piece that night was about your sons. and I hope they know how proud of a father and how much you love them I've never got to meet them but I will soon. You reminded me that even after all the years and all my loss that I still had family. I would give my last for you brother I wish I was with you when you needed me the most March 22nd. I shed tears having to type this. Rest easy bro. Till next time. love, respect, and loyalty.

you don't die if you leave, only if you forget. God puts the toughest tests on his best soldiers, and without a doubt, you were the toughest. You look up on you and saw a king so he took you away from us. May you rest in paradise siempre serás el hombre de cero el soldado de la familia I'll always love you and cherish every moment we spent together I'll see you soon, bro save me a spot
