

Anne Marie Scolaro

May 5, 1923 - November 19, 2020

Anne Marie Scolaro (Anna), 97, born in New York City and lived in Highland, New York for 16 years, and has been a resident of Tampa for 81 years. Anna was born May 5, 1923. She is preceded in death by her parents Vincenzo and Leonarda Corso, husband Joe (GiGi) Scolaro and brother Paul Corso. She is survived by sister, Josephine Fernandez; two children, Carol (Dr. Joseph) Craig and JoAnn (Phil) Demmi; two grandchildren, Gina (Jason) Misenhelder and Christopher Craig; two great-grandchildren, Ella and Kai Misenhelder; sister-in-law Louise Corso; and many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She worked as a seamstress in New York sewing military uniforms and later in Tampa at Frayne Sportswear. She was an excellent cook and was known for her sesame seed cookies and the fountain of youth, never looking her age. She welcomed all with a smile, kindness, and an open heart. She always put family and friends first, she adored them and they adored her in return. Anna will certainly be missed by all who knew her. There will be no funeral service due to the ongoing Covid-19 crisis. The family would like to express gratitude and appreciation to Lifepath and the Chang Family (Dr. Ramon Chang and Myriam Chang) and staff who cared for Anna with compassion, dignity and grace during this challenging time of a pandemic. As Anna would want, pay your kindness forward to others, the cost is little, but the reward is rich. Donations in Anna's memory may be made to LifePath Hospice www.chaptershealth.org/giving or the American Heart Association www.heart.org

Cemetery

Bay Pines National Cemetery

10,000 Bay Pines Blvd

St. Petersburg, FL, 33708

Comments

“ Such wonderful memories of Anna and Joe. Anna NEVER looked her age! She will be remembered for her beautiful, always welcoming smile. She loved her family dearly and I know they will always be blessed with wonderful memories of this happy, kind , loving woman. Thinking of her family and sending a very warm hug to all. Thank you for sharing Anna with the rest of us-we loved her too! Carol Nelson carol nelson - November 25, 2020 at 11:32 AM

“ Our condolences and prayers to the entire Scolaro family . I personally met Anna and Joe over 25 years ago as I was their next door neighbor and was going through a really bad divorce. They took me in like I was part of their family . I loved both of them as if they were my second parents I have so many fond and great memories with them over those years . Anna will definitely be missed as she was loved by so many . I know she lived a beautiful and fulfilled life that I am grateful to be a small part of . R.I.P. Anna

Love Joe and Linda

joe Vizzi - November 22, 2020 at 09:43 AM

“ My Condolences to the Scolaro family. Anne Marie will now rest in eternal love with her husband Gigi.. God bless them

Phyllis Scheidt - November 21, 2020 at 12:06 PM