“ Dear Phyllis, I am so sorry for your loss and apologise for not making the service. Otis and I were out of town and could not make it back in time. I know how hard it is to loose your Mother. (Your best friend and confidant) and a love like no other. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family. Love, Rose and Otis Bass

The Watcher
by Margaret Widdemer

She always leaned to watch for us
Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate.
And though we mocked her tenderly
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe,
Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget,
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.
Waiting 'til we come home to her
Anxious if we are late
Watching from Heaven's window
Leaning from Heaven's gate.

“ My deepest condolences to Denio, Jeanete, and the family of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends ,Lydia was a precious woman in my life. She was kind, sympathetic, loving, forgiving, friendly and helpful, She was a great hostess as she loved to entertain. I have so many wonderful memories of her and all the time we spent together over the years. She was able to remain innocent even though life threw her a few heartaches. I loved the way she would laugh and giggle at things we talked about. She was always a lady. I never heard her say a curse word or speak negatively against anyone. The way she dressed and did her hair was always complimented by her manicured nails, jewelry and her warm, sweet smile. She was a class act! I will miss her dearly. She passed a few days after my mom. I can picture her seeing mom in heaven and saying "Angie, I didn't know you were here!"
Until we meet again, my memories and love for her will keep her with me at all times.
